DETAILS RELEASED REGARDING AN ACCIDENT that occurred Monday night near Beaver Lake - According to Cass County Sheriff Robert Sorenson, a white Chevrolet Malibu driven by 49-year-old Johnny Perkins of Garland, TX was westbound on Rock Bluff Road when it failed to yield the right of way at the intersection of Highway 75. This resulted in a collision with a northbound silver Ford Fusion driven by 27-year-old Jaime Ibarra of Omaha. Both drivers were transported by Murray Rescue to a hospital in Omaha for their injuries. The vehicles came to a rest in the intersection forcing emergency personnel to shut down the northbound lanes for an hour.

SENTENCING IN CHILD EXPLOITATION CASE — Nicholas A. Corns, 29, of Plattsmouth, pleaded guilty to possession of a visual depictions of sexually explicit conduct of a child, a class 2A felony. Initially facing two counts, Corns had one count dismissed as part of the plea agreement. He was placed on probation for 36 months, to run consecutively with a probation term in Platte County District Court. Additionally, Corns will be required to register as a sex offender.

Local law enforcement initiated an investigation into Corns after receiving a report from the Platte County, Nebraska Sheriff's Office regarding a child enticement incident in March of last year. Following the obtaining of a search warrant, a phone belonging to Corns was seized and examined.

RECYCLING EVENT REMINDER — Keep Cass County Beautiful is sponsoring electronics recycling Saturday (4/27) from 9am to noon at the Weeping Water ballfield. KCCB will pay half of the recycling fee of four items per household. Commercial quantities will not be accepted. Clothing donations will also be accepted.
