 THE LOCAL STORM REPORT PAGE from the National Weather Service shows how close the tornado activity was to Cass County on Friday afternoon – Tornado warnings were issued for about every portion of Cass County at one point. The major destruction was in areas to the northwest and north of Cass County.
 The locations on that report closest to Cass County:
 2:51pm - Tornado - 4 miles SW of Waverly
 2:53pm - Tornado - 1 mile NW of Waverly
 2:59pm - Tornado - 2 miles WNW of Waverly
 3:15pm - Tornado - 4 miles NNW of Greenwood (in Lancaster Co)
 -Emergency Management relayed a report from 911 call center of a confirmed tornado to the west of Ashland
 Late afternoon – Three tornado reports from Mills County, Iowa As with tornadoes, there was hail.
 3:41pm – Hail – deputy reported from Highway 50 and McKelvie Road pea sized hail.
 4:36pm – Hail – Beaver Lake and Plattsmouth areas reports of pea sized hail.
 4:42pm – Hail – 3 miles northeast Cedar Creek (1.75 inch in Sarpy Co)
 In the minutes that followed, there were various 1 inch to 2 inch hail reports in Sarpy County

ARREST IN FRIDAY NIGHT DISTURBANCE – Plattsmouth Police were dispatched to a residence in the 500 block of north 8th Street Friday night shortly after 9pm. A caller had reported a man had put a gun to his head. Jail records show a 55-year-old man from Plattsmouth was booked for terroristic threats, use of a weapon to commit a felony, concealed handgun violation, making a false report, and 3rd degree assault. The man is still in Cass County Jail awaiting an appearance before a judge.

WEEKEND ACCIDENTS –
 -Thursday night at 8pm a deputy advised dispatch of a two-vehicle accident at northbound Highway 75 and Avenue B in Plattsmouth. The deputy requested Plattsmouth EMS respond for a female party with a possible arm injury. Northbound Highway 75 was reduced to one lane. A female patient was transported to a hospital. Plattsmouth fire, police and county EMS also responded. Law enforcement was on location for nearly an hour.
 At the time of the accident Plattsmouth EMS was already responding to two separate medical calls. Murray was requested to assist with the other calls.
 -Friday night just before 9pm Greenwood Volunteer Fire and Rescue was dispatched to westbound Interstate 80 near the Ashland exit for a one-vehicle accident. One female was transported from the scene. Cass County deputies, Nebraska State Patrol, and county EMS also responded. Crews were on scene for a little over an hour.

THERE WERE THREE DUI bookings between 11pm Saturday and 1am Sunday plus an "assist citizen" call.
 -A sheriff's deputy was helping a citizen with a vehicle off the road at Highway 75 at Highway 66 when he observed a northbound red GMC with no headlights. Police officers in Plattsmouth were notified. Contact was made north of Fulton Avenue. A 48-year-old Omaha man was booked for first offense.
 -Additional charges are pending from an incident that deputies were sorting out in the 12am hour. Two people were booked after a dark-colored SUV avoided a deputy near Nehawka. It ended up going southbound through a field. Contact was made with three individuals in a field south of 24th Street and Nehawka Road. Jail reports show a 23-year-old Plattsmouth man was booked for DUI, DUI testing refusals, false reporting, and obstructing law enforcement. The reports show a 23-year-old Des Moines, Iowa woman was booked for aggravated DUI, DUI testing refusal and false reporting.
 -There was no arrest involved when police officers assisted an inebriated person early Sunday morning in Plattsmouth. Per police scanner reports, a male caller told the 911 dispatcher he was stuck in a vehicle because he was unable to get the seatbelt undone. Officers found him in the passenger seat, unlatched the seatbelt and assisted him into a residence off Lincoln Avenue.
 ▶Officers also arrested a 43-year-old Plattsmouth man on suspicion of DUI after a traffic stop Friday at 11:40pm in the parking lot of Burger King.
